"Good Friday"
Am I a stone, and not a sheep,
That I can stand, O Christ, beneath Thy cross,
To number drop by drop Thy blood's slow loss,
And yet not weep?

Not so those women loved
Who with exceeding grief lamented Thee;
Not so fallen Peter, weeping bitterly;
Not so the thief was moved;
Not so the Sun and Moon
Which hid their faces in a starless sky,
A horror of great darkness at broad noon –
I, only I.

Yet give not o'er,
But seek Thy sheep, true Shepherd of the flock;
Greater than Moses, turn and look once more
And smite a rock.
by Christina Rossetti

Seen Jesus Lately?
Luke 24, Isaiah 6, Numbers 20

Is it possible to look right at Jesus and not recognize Him? We're going to look at three passages in the Bible where Jesus was there and people didn't know it.

1. Luke 24:13-32

2. Isaiah 6:1-8

3. Numbers 20:1-11

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT AND SMALL GROUP STUDY:

1. There are lots of different hunts people participate in – scavenger hunts, nature hunts, bargain hunts, deer hunts, turkey hunts – you get the idea. What are some of the hunts you've gone on? Share one with your group.

2. Go on a little "God hunt"– look back over this past week. Can you think of a time this past week when you "saw Him" in some provision or in the timing of an event? How might you approach this coming week if you were to share at the supper table each day how you saw Him show up?

3. How would your experience of worship change if Jesus were sitting on the platform? How would your experience of Wednesday night supper change if He were in our fellowship hall? How would your home change if He were at your dinner table? How would your work experience change if He were beside you?

4. Read Luke 24:13-32. Why do you suppose Jesus kept them from recognizing Him until He broke bread with them?

5. Read Isaiah 6:1-8 and John 12:37-41. What's the significance that Jesus is the Lord (small ord) and LORD (capital ORD) that Isaiah saw?

6. Read Numbers 20 and 1 Cor 10:1-4. What's the significance of Paul's statement in 1 Cor 10:4?

7. What's one take-home you can come away with from this lesson for the coming week?
